

TRANSITIONS event

Thursday 23 February 2012 at the Oxford Centre, 333 Banbury Road
09.30 – 14.00 (with free lunch)

Young Carers

A presentation themed on the Oxford University Widening Participation Programme

Parent Carers

Taking a child into Adult Services. What is it like to go through this transition?

Adult Carers

Being a carer – into residential care and beyond. Being an adult carer of an adult with a Learning Disability.

The Annual Carers Workshop has been re-scheduled to Thursday 23 February 2012 at The Oxford Centre, Banbury Road and is a fantastic opportunity for carers to have their day and be listened to. The event covering Transitions will be chaired by John Dixon, Deputy Director, Adult Social Care. Other contributors include Dr Mary Keenan Deputy Lead of the Oxfordshire GP Consortium, John Pearce, Adult Social Care, Deborah Parkhouse for Children Young People and Families, Gail Hanrahan (Care Champion) from Oxfordshire Family Support Network and many more.

Don't miss the opportunity to be there.

Please call Michelle on 01235 520440 if you would like to attend or email michelle@oxoncarersforum.org.uk places are limited so it is first come first served.